1. On 2 July 1952, 16 x 37-mm AA guns, 4 two-wheeled ballistic directors, 4 trucks and 2 tank trailers were seen in the cantonment at Korneuburg (O 49/S 30) on the road to Disenberg. A group of 64 soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets, some carrying cleaning rods, came from the direction of the cantonment and entered the Albrecht Kaserne. Trucks driven by soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, were observed at the Albrecht Kaserne. Near the Soviet office at 7 through 9 Hovengasse, two additional approaches had been walled, thus creating a single billeting installation. Jeep and sedan with drivers who wore red-bordered black epaulets, were observed there.*

Stockerau

2. On 4 July, about 40 M were engaged in practice with rifles and about 30 M were drilling with 3 x 37-mm AA guns in the Prinz Eugen Kaserne at Stockerau (O 49/S 21). All soldiers wore red-bordered black epaulets. Three majors wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia left the installation where trucks carrying ration supply boxes, and jeep were observed. The drivers wore red-bordered black epaulets. The noise of troops drilling was heard at the Artillerie Kaserne. Five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia, truck with drivers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, were observed at the installation. Driving-school trucks were seen in the town.

Wiener Neustadt

3. On 30 June, 12 canvas-covered AA guns and some motor vehicles were seen in the cantonment at the western edge of Wiener Neustadt (O 48/S 34). The installation was occupied by a unit with red-bordered black epaulets.

[redacted] Comment. [redacted] probably belongs to the 1336th AAA Regt. It is believed that this regiment is equipped with 37-mm guns. According to previous observations, more guns, including some 85-mm guns, were seen in the cantonment on the road to Bismberg. Therefore, it is believed that, at the time of observation, elements of the AAA units stationed at Korneuburg were at the Apetlon troop training grounds.
